

CHRIS TOLLEY

Chris is a versatile composer for television and film with credits covering a wide range of genres.

His composition skills has seen him write for different productions within the fields of factual entertainment, feature documentaries, light entertainment, natural history and natural science. Recent original scores include Hurricane Harvey Heroes (PBS America, 1 x 60') and series 2 of Plane Resurrection (PBS America, 6 x 60').

Recent composition projects include: For Military Merit (Nik Coleman Television, 1 x 90'), a hard hitting feature length documentary about wounded and traumatised American servicemen and their post-service struggles; That's All, Brother (Nik Coleman Television, 2 x 90') about the discovery in a scrap yard and subsequent restoration of the plane that led to the D-Day landings, with plans to fly her over Normandy next year on the 75th anniversary of the invasion.

Chris' more recent credits are on adventure series Rubber Foot Buffalo (Holt Coleman Television USA, 6 x 60'), which is due to be broadcast in 2019.
